

Course Outcome

| Course | Outcome |
|--|---|
| Perspectives and Methodologies in Social Sciences: History | A critical understanding of the past through methodologies and theoretical insights |
| Understanding Early India | Acquire knowledge on the socio-economic transformation in early India |
| Polity, Society and Economy in Pre Colonial India | will understand the political, social and economic changes in medieval India |
| Cultural Trends in Pre Colonial Kerala | an insight into the socio-cultural changes in the early phase of Kerala history |
| Making of Modern Kerala | will throw light on problems and perspectives of modern Kerala and its socio-economic- cultural developments |
| Researching the Past | Familiarise students the basic terms and concepts in history and the methodology of writing history |
| Inheritance and Departures in Historiography | acquaint with the new trends with a view to improve the understanding of historical writings |
| India: Nation in the Making | Students will comprehend the major processes involved in making India as a nation |
| State and Society in Ancient and Medieval World | Apprehend the development of various societies in the ancient/medieval world |
| Environmental Studies and Human Rights in Historical Outline | A sense of awareness about environmental problems and need for sustainable development |
| Making of Contemporary India | will understand the problem and prospects of Contemporary India in the light of its background history |
| Understanding Modern World | the trials, turbulences and the transition that the world experienced and the contemporary world developments Can be analysed |
| Capitalism and Colonialism | various processes involved in capitalism and colonialism and its effects on economic development |
| Gender in Indian Perspectives | realise the very notion that gender difference is not natural but political and economic and power oriented |
| Archaeology in India | Basic concepts, methods and techniques in archaeology is comprehended |